There was a very large addition to witness the representation of a new dramat!

Aution of Dr Jekyll and Mr. Hyde, pade by Mr. Geo. M. Wood, and English settor, which appeared in the dual character. If he is the define of Mr. Wood to be told has expiritions that he has made a better play from the leaving of Mr. Stowceson's fory than did Mr. Salliwan, he must be answered—yea! Taken at a play, his work is certainly much superior to the citer. Mr. Wood has made a consistent and a rational play, an effective drama hie has shown better judgment than did Mr. Sulliwan, in the introduction of the love clien ent. He makes the herose of the play the dashgiter of Jekyll, and shows inly, and soil, fudd of pakernal lafiestion. This not only, enhances interest but Increases probability as well. Mr. Yoodhis a very gobil play. For the acting of the dual roles it must be said lift yoodhis ernectures. His Jekyll has in k dig nitted it telligence and a piet pathos that livites sympathy. NOTICE

I extend my sincere thanks to friends and patrons for past business and would now say that I have secured the services of Mr. S. DRURY, of Boston, one of the best artists in his profession in New England. I cordially invite my friends and the public generally to call and examine the largest stock of suitings, pantaloon goods, fine dress goods, and a very fine line of spring and fall over coating.
